PROGRAM GUIDE

Yakima
& Parks Recreation
Come Out and Play!

“First, think. Second, dream. Third, believe.
And finally, dare.”

—Walt Disney

A message from Ken Wilkinson, Parks and Recreation Manager:

As winter begins, we parks & recreation types are already thinking about spring and summer. I have always been a planner. I like the thinking and dreaming stage and then spending the time to figure out how we get them accomplished.

It has been my dream to replace the playground at Martin Luther King Jr. Park. We began working with our friends at Downtown Yakima Rotary to make this a reality. Eric Silvers, current president of Downtown aRotary, has chosen as his project for 2020 to replace the playground at Martin Luther King Jr. Park and adding a picnic shelter. We will also be working with Dan Sullivan and Wes Morris on the project. The plan is to remove the old worn out playground and place the new, much larger one near that spot in the spring of 2020. We are also planning a picnic shelter to be constructed in the area where the bands set up for the Viva la Musica concerts at the park.

City Council directed us to create a feasibility study for the proposed community swimming pool at Martin Luther King Jr. Park. The study has been completed and can be found on our Yakima Parks & Recreation website: yakimaparks.com.

As always, maintenance is a challenge for us—there is always more work than time. We’ve struggled over the years to maintain flower beds. Recently, the rose gardens at Franklin Park have not looked so good. Everyone that has a garden knows the work they take to keep looking good. In past years, volunteers have helped us keep them nice, but volunteers move, get tired and just can’t do the work anymore. We are considering removing the rose gardens and replacing them with grass. Before we do that, I wanted to put out the request for volunteers to help us once again bring the rose gardens back to their previous glory. If you have the time and energy, please contact me as soon as possible at 509-576-6416 or by email at Ken.Wilkinson@YakimaWa.com.

Walt Disney said it well. We need to spend time each year thinking and dreaming and being courageous to believe and be daring. Sometimes the part about being daring can be pretty scary, but I have found that it is worth the risk. I encourage you to dare to take some risks in 2020. I will look for ways to be daring in 2020 too.

Recreational Activities

WINTER/SPRING 2020

Andy & Shannon Mahre are more than coaches—they are a husband and wife team and are partners in life on and off the mountain, raising their son, Ryder, to enjoy the outdoors just as much as they do. Both Shannon & Andy started their careers as athletes, but now focus a large part of their time on coaching and helping others to excel at the sports that have made them both the people that they are today. When they aren't shredding, coaching or adventuring with Ryder, they are shooting photos and videos and writing articles for their clients through their other company, Mahre Media. So don't be surprised when you head home after one of their clinics with some great photos and videos of yourself getting after it—because they truly can't help themselves!
