Newsletter

April May June 2021

Dear Participants,

Happy Spring! We are back open! HOORAY!!! It is so nice to have participants coming through the doors of the Center again. We have missed all of you so much! We are bit limited for some of our classes with the current restrictions and at this time we do not have many special events planned. We hope that in the coming months this will change. Please check out our newsletter for our weekly schedule, travel updates, and new classes planned.

Our Spring quarter Help the Community Project is for the Veteran's Coalition. We will be accepting new toiletries, toilet paper, paper towels, and detergents. No clothing and blankets will be accepted for this drive. We appreciate all of your generosity in making our community projects a success!

We will host our Open House event for the Harman Center's 17th Anniversary on May 26th, Wednesday from 2:00pm – 3:00pm. It will be a bit different this year. Cake and punch will be served during the event. We will be giving tours of the Center to any new participants but will be unable to host all of our group facilitators to meet and greet as we have done in the past.

Stay tuned for new updates about the Center. I will post memos regularly about any new information on our flyer tables at the Center and all of our social media. We are going to continue our weekly talk show, Chat Face! with the Harman Center Girls, on Facebook every Wednesday at 1:00pm. We will announce any new information on there as well. I hope everyone is staying safe and well.

Sending lots of hugs & laughter,

Trips & Tours

Your Travel Journal

Hello my fellow travelers! It is my pleasure to announce that travel is on and the trips have been filling up. I have 4 trips which are currently full: the Tulip Festival, Mystery Trip #1 (which was changed from May 4th to June 10th), the Snake River Adventure, and the Columbia River Landmark Brunch. Trips I do have room on are the Sunset Dinner Cruise on May 22nd (this one was the St. Patrick's Day Cruise), and I have only 8 seats left on that one. Also Harrison Hot Springs, June 1-4, has 7 double queen rooms left and according to my sources on the other side of the border, it looks like we should be able to go. Lincoln City has 3 rooms left. Plus, I have just opened up 8 more tickets for the Pendleton Underground.
